

DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT

10121

The president shall preside at all meetings. The president shall, subject to board approval, decide questions of order, and shall appoint any committees which the board determines necessary. The president shall have the same rights and privileges as other members of the board in voting, introducing motions and resolutions, and in discussing questions.

The president shall, prior to or after holding any closed session, state the general reason or reasons for the closed session.
