

Interested students may plan and organize bacculaureate services. Student attendance at such services shall be entirely voluntary. Bacculaureate services shall be conducted during non-instructional time as designated by the school principal.

School employees may be assigned to be present at such services solely for the purpose of supervision and shall be non-participatory.

School district funds may not be expended for bacculaureate exercises beyond the cost of providing space.

Board of Trustees

April 10, 1986

Reviewed: February 22, 1990

Reviewed: May 1993

Revised: March 1998

Reviewed: April 2005

E