

Email Etiquette

EMAIL COMPONENT	(-) LESS EFFECTIVE	(+) MORE EFFECTIVE
To	Include/Exclude the wrong people Include too many people - Not clarifying who the primary receiver is	Address to one primary recipient
Cc	Include/Exclude the wrong people Include others too often - Important emails don't stand out	Include only those directly involved
Bcc	Include people who should not be responding to the entire group	Use for large group emails Use to protect privacy/confidentiality of group Include Supervisor as needed - Showing a task was done or contact was made
From	Use Personal Email for Work - Using personal email address for work related communication	Use Work Email for Work - Using work email that has name and organization in the address line
Subject	Ambiguous &amp; Unspecific - "Question," "Jason Smith," "Update," ALL CAPS or all lower case	Relates to message content Clear &amp; Concise - "Quick question about overtime," "Suggestion for presentation," "Update on Jason's leave request"
Salutation	No Salutation Too Informal - "All," "Hey There" "To whom it may concern,"	Pleasant &amp; Specific - "Hi Susan," "Good Afternoon," "Greetings,"
Spelling Grammar Punctuation	Emoji's, Slang, Jargon (Texting) Abbreviations/Acronyms Distracting Punctuation - Using exclamation points too much!!!	Correct Spelling Correct Grammar
Content	Too Long/Wordy/Jumbled Negative/Sarcastic Tone Too Much Humor	Short and to the point Positive/Friendly Tone - Easy to understand Introduction if to Stranger - "This is Joe from AUHSD"
Font Type	Too Big or Small Too Distracting - Bright color, unusual font style	10-12 point font size Times New Roman, Arial (simple print) Black color
Sign-off	No Sign-off Unnatural &amp; Random - "Cordially," "Respectfully," "Sincerely,"	Pleasant &amp; Respectful - "Best regards," "Thank you," "Talk soon,"
Signature	No Signature Incomplete Signature	Full Name Position Title Location/Site/Department Organization (AUHSD) Phone number
Attachments	File name does not indicate contents	Provide warning of large file (&gt;2MB) No more than 2 attachments
Reply	No Reply Late Reply - More than 24 hours	Reply to all emails even if not intended recipient - Clarify that received - Clarify if not the intended receiver - Redirect to right person
Reply All	Include others who don't need your response	When others need to see your response
Out-of-Office Autoreply	No Out-of-Office/Autoreply when out &gt; 1 day Fail to inform backup support	Include anticipated length of absence Include another person to contact for support
Forward	Send without context or explanation - "See below," "FYI" Send without original sender permission	Provide quick summary of content - "Per our discussion regarding the budget." Use caution when sensitive info

ADDITIONAL SUGGESTIONS & TIPS

- Only discuss matters that could be made public
- Make it clear if a response or answer is needed
- Keep it short and get to the point (one topic per email)
- Add email addresses last in case you accidentally press "send"
- Read your message out loud to check tone and clarity
- Proofread for spelling, grammar, and punctuation
- Provide warning when sending large attachments
- Don't overuse "high priority" button
- Clarify if the message is confidential
- Pick up the phone when info. is complicated or devastating
- Don't use background images or "stationary"
- Don't email angry (wait until you're calm/composed)