

Young Senators Program

Senator Lou Correa

California State Senate, 34th District

Young Senators Program offers:

- ✓ Leadership Training
- ✓ Seminars on the legislative process
- ✓ Innovative learning environment
- ✓ Community networking opportunities

Program Goals, Objectives and Time Commitment:

The Young Senators Program is an innovative program that nurtures young leaders by providing them with a unique opportunity to actively engage in discussions and learn from business leaders, government officials and community organizations.

The Program is designed for incoming high school students interested in learning about California's legislative process. Beginning in October, the students accepted into the Program will be required to attend monthly youth empowerment and leadership seminars. In addition, students will learn about issues affecting their communities and will be required to complete 20 hours of community service. All students who complete the 10 month program will be honored among local dignitaries at a Graduation Ceremony in June 2010.

Requirements:

- ✓ High School Student in the 34th District
- ✓ Completed Program Application
- ✓ Essay (Optional)
- ✓ Letter(s) of Recommendation (Optional)
- ✓ Students interested in a career in public service are encouraged to apply

How to apply:
